It will be a real pleasure to welcome Ralph Stewart to our city in his comedy drama success, "Strongheart," on Monday, Oct. 21st. Theatre goers feel no doubt that they have had their full share of comic opera, musical comedy and extravaganza, and that a real good drama will come as a most welcome change. "Strongheart" has to do with college life and the race question. It tells the story of an Indian's love for a white woman, with the scenes laid at Columbia University, New York, which allows ample opportunity for good comedy, of which it is said the play is full.

If there is any just reason why the street sprinkler should cease operations, the Chieftain is not in possession of the facts. A town the size of Vinita can certainly afford one street sprinkler.
The Times-Journal says that in a year Oklahoma City will have an increase of 15,000 in population, and says it as easily as "Pussyfoot." Johnson breaks a bottle of "Hiawatha."
Several Republican Indians in Muskogee will find strange moccasin tracks near their teepees if they will look closely, and several scalps will be lifted before all the hostiles returned to the reservation.
"The observation of a Missourian visiting in Oklahoma that 'this is God's country,'" says the Tulsa World, "is being vigorously denied by the politicians, who insist that it belongs to the Democratic party. For once, at least, we adjudged the politicians correct."
Dr. Frederick Sheets, of Bartlesville while hunting in the Osage country, was almost bitten by a deer. He found a place of safety after emptying his Winchester rifle on a direct line with the deer's head. Of course, he didn't kill the deer, as this would be a violation of law at a cost of $100.
Several men at the show grounds yesterday were fleeing the unwary by selling 50c tickets in advance of the opening of the ticket office for 75 cents and one dollar each. Marshal Webb learned of the fact and at once notified them to desist or he would run in the entire show outfit and fine them heavily. This immediately put a stop to the grafting of the ticket sellers.

Home Comforts

IN THE HOME ELECTRICITY has Revolutionized the work, greatly lightening the labor of the Housekeeper. She may have an Electric Fan near the Ironing board with no fear of cooling the iron. The current which keeps her cool, keeps the iron hot. She may work away all day, sitting down if she chooses, with no journeyings to the hot stove to change irons. One iron will do it all, from a lace collar to a damask table cloth. A steady, even heat, and no scorching of delicate fabrics with too hot an implement. Ask for one on trial. We will do the rest.
